JOCKEYS OF TODAY.

While the volume of racing in the United States on race courses of first rank shows steady increase, and in consequence there is a greater demand for good jockeys, the supply by no means equals the demand.

While it is true that there is any number of boys ready and willing to accept mounts, of the number only a select few rank much above the station of expert exercise lads. Of the jockeys who rode on the flat during the past season, the following are those whose work places them in a class by themselves: N. Turner, Spencer, O'Connor, Maher, Jenkins, O'Leary, W. Martin, Odom and Burns.

With the exception of Martin and O'Leary, the above-named are as yet young and cannot be considered to have reached their best form, and consequently can be confidently expected to improve in their work as they grow older and more experienced. Martin and Turner are under the ban, and it is an open question whether they will be seen in the saddle next season, though, taking the past as a precedent, reinstatement may be the lot of Turner.

One great fault of the system of hero worship which marks the actions of the American public toward jockeys who are signally successful is to turn their heads. Unless they are in the hands of good managers the boys are apt to become overbearing in their manner and so puffed up with their seeming importance that their work in the saddle is likely to suffer. They acquire pernicious habits, and in consequence neglect the rules of health, which are absolutely necessary to keep them fit. The salaries and fees which they receive in a measure make them independent, and they resent any advice from older and wiser heads, and when discipline is enforced they become embittered against the men who are really their friends and well-wishers.

It is to the younger generation of jockeys that we must look for future successful riders, for the older knights of the pigskin seem to have outlived their usefulness, as witness the falling off in the work of Taral, Simms, Clayton, Hamilton and others.

Jockeys should remember that riding is not all that they have to learn. Integrity of character and a clean life are most important adjuncts; and they must be ready and anxious to do their duty toward themselves, their employers and to the public who place their confidence in them.—Spirit of the Times.

According to a Memphis critic there is a better class of two-year-olds at Montgomery Park than has been there in years. It is the general verdict among trainers that almost every owner at the track has one or more stake colts or fillies in his string. It is conceded that C. T. Patterson has some fine colts aside from the Hanover—Workmate colt. There is much conjecture as to the probable name this blue-blooded youngster will be given. Taking the first part of his sire's name and the last part of the dam's name, it would be Hanmate; or the last part of the sire's name and the first part of the dam's would be Overwork, but that would not be appropriate, as Patterson never overworks his horses.

Abe Cahn has a cracking good colt by Charade, and his brother, Lou Cahn, has a good gelding by St. Julien—Lady Jim. Old-timers will remember the dam, a fast filly, which belonged to Louis Ezell.

T. P. Hayes is also credited with several good ones, and Albert Franklin is handling some highly bred two-year-olds of W. H. Laudeman. Ben Vincent has a couple of well bred colts, one a brother to Leonawell and another a brother to Yaba Dam. The Schorr colts are doing well, but are never hurried until time to go to the races. W. H. May & Son also have some fine ones, as has J. J. Marklein.

Below are the American horses entered in early English races:

Lincolnshire, 1 mile, run March 27—Archduke II, 5 years; Method, 4; Maggins II, 4; Berzak, 6; Chinoek, 5; Sly Fox, 5, and Stamina, 4.

Liverpool Spring Cup, 2 1/4 miles, run March 31—Sly Fox, 5.

London Cup, 1 1/4 miles, run April 14, at Alexandria Park—Jolly Tar, 4; Dominie II, 4; Rensselaer, 5; A. N. B., 4, and Sly Fox, 5.

Queen's Prize, 1 1/2 miles, at Kempton Park, April 16—Dominie II, 4, and Sly Fox, 5.

Great Metropolitan, 2 1/4 miles, at Epsom, April 24—Rensselaer, 5, and Sly Fox, 5.

City and Suburban, 1 1/4 miles, Epsom, April 25—Stamina, 4; Archduke II, 5; Method, 4; Dominie II, 4; Sibola, 4, and Sly Fox, 5.

Jubilee, at Kempton Park, May 12, over the increased distance of 1 1/4 miles—Sly Fox, 5; Dominie II, 4; Sibola, 4, and Swiftmas, 4.

Hurst Park Spring Handicap, 1 1/2 miles, May 5—Jiffy II, 5, and Sly Fox, 5.

Chester Cup, 2 1/4 miles, May 9—Rensselaer, 6, and Sly Fox, 5.

Montank (Strathmore—Spinaway), is named for the Liverpool Grand National, run on March 30. This race has received seventy-five entries, or an increase of three over last year.

Baker & Gentry's string for this year is composed of the following horses:

Beana, b. f, 4, by Macduff—Lilith.

Jack Telling, b. c, 3, by Bramble—Knack.

King Dellis, br. c, 3, by Kingston—Flower Dellis.

Anna Bain, br. f, 3, by Kingston—Laura W.

Jena, b. f, 3, by Florist—Becky B.

Little Veronica, b. f, 3, by Jim Gore—Virgie Johnson.

Bay colt, 2, by Tenny—Favorite.

Bay colt, 2, by Scorpion—Ten Ban.

Brown colt, 2, by St. George—Palmetto.

Brown filly, 2, by St. George—Come and Go.

Chestnut filly, 2, by Rosington—Inez.

Chestnut filly, 2, by Hanover—Marion G.

Chestnut filly, 2, by Long Dance—Laura W.

Bay filly, 2, by Loux Dance—Little Sisterly.

Bay filly, 2, by St. George—Virgie Johnson.

Bay filly, 2, by Badge—Lady B.

J. Naglee Burk, one of California's best racing men, will sell his entire stable and retire from the turf. Mr. Burk had some prominence in the east when he raced that good horse Crescendo in that part of the country several years ago. He is racing among others now that speedy daughter of Ormonde, named Rosoronde, though she is not his property. She still belongs to the Stanford estate, who owned her dam, Fairy Rose. Mr. Burk will have twenty-four horses to sell, among them some good looking two-year-olds by Crescendo. John Givens ("Kentucky John") has been training for Mr. Burk for some time, but such a competent and thoroughly honest trainer will hardly be without an engagement very long.

The California Jockey Club has offered a handsome gold watch to the jockey securing the greatest number of points at the coming three weeks meeting at Oakland. The conditions of the contest call for three points for each winning mount, two for each second and one for each third place. The rider securing the greatest number of points is to secure the prize. This is not to be computed by percentage of winning and losing mounts. Each jockey can ride as many races as he pleases, and when they are unplaced it is not to operate against them. The total number of points decides the contest.

FOREHAND IN TROUBLE.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., January 23.—Jockey Forehand was suspended indefinitely today for his ride on School Girl, January 20.

The entries of Tophet and Torreon will be refused in jumping races in the future.

GEYSER'S DAM.

Hot Spring, the dam of Geyser, was formerly owned by Dr. C. W. Crowley of St. Louis. Dr. Crowley purchased Hot Spring along with Gratitude, dam of Lottie Mills, and Bonnie Lass, dam of English Lady, at the disposal sale of the late Capt William Cottrill's racing stable. Capt. Cottrill will be remembered as a distinguished southerner from Mobile, who was for years the Nestor of the western turf. Hot Spring, Gratitude and Bonnie Lass were all young mares when bought by Dr. Crowley, who was at the time negotiating for a farm in St. Louis county, where he intended to breed a few runners. The deal for the farm fell through, however, and Dr. Crowley, having no place to keep the mares, sold them to his old friend, John Duffy, who subsequently sent Hot Spring to California and disposed of Gratitude to a party in the interior of the state. Mr. Duffy still owns Bonnie Lass, who is now a dignified old matron at Joseph D. Lucas' Goodwood Stud in St. Louis county.

"I wish I had those three mares now," declared Dr. Crowley, while in a reminiscent mood recently. "You know, I now have a farm, also a promising young stallion in Counter Tenor, but first class mares are hard to get, and I now bitterly regret having ever sold Hot Spring, Gratitude and Bonnie Lass. All three have proved themselves producing mares of more or less renown, especially Hot Spring, who, in addition to Geyser, also threw the useful race horse Lavator, winner of a lot of races on the Frisco tracks within the last year.

"Hot Spring is by Rebel, who sired many of the best race horses that came out of the south right after the war. Hot Spring had a wonderful turn of speed as a two-year-old, and Captain Cottrill expected to win the Quickstep Stakes at Washington Park with the filly, but she went wrong while receiving a special preparation for the event. Ben Ali, the sire of Geyser, won the Kentucky Derby of 1883 from Blue Wing and Free Knight. Ben Ali was one of the best race horses that ever performed in the colors of James B. Haggin, the master of Rancho del Paso. Gratitude is now a member of the brood mare band at Barney Schreiber's Woodlands farm in St. Louis county. In addition to Lottie Mills, she is also the dam of Good Hope and First Shot, a colt that won at San Francisco the other day. Bonnie Lass still remains in the possession of Mr. Duffy. Bonnie Lass' most famous foal, English Lady, was one of the best three-year-old fillies of her year, having captured both the Kentucky and Latonia Oaks in 1890. The Messrs. Scoggan sold English Lady when she was at the height of her glory to Major Back of New York for $10,000"—St. Louis Republic.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Maid of Dorset, by Dutch Skater, the property of J. R. & F. P. Kesne, Castleton Stud, Ky., dropped on January 11 a bay or brown filly by Ben Brush. This is the first foal by Ben Brush and the second one of the year reported from the vicinity of Lexington.

The first foal of the year in Kentucky was dropped at the Walnut Hill Stud of T. H. Stevens on the night of January 2. It was a brown colt by St. Florian—Florimore, by Longfellow.

J. W. Colt, Geneseo, N. Y., has purchased of J. H. Brownkirk, Lexington, Ky., the bay gelding Tates Creek, 4, by Wagner—Dolly Withers, by Macduff. He is to be trained for jumping.

John Lamley has sold to W. D. Bernhard the black gelding Tophet, 4, by Fiddlesticks—Tescana.

Burns & Waterhouse have turned out Lovedal, Bit of Fashion, Recreation, Humidity and Nap-amax.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The California papers stated that Ed Corri-gan's great colt, Golden Rule, would not start until he was a three-year-old, as his owner wished to give him a rest. It will be remembered that the colt was not himself when at Saratoga last fall. The fact was that one of his fore feet was not so sound as it should have been, and consequently the son of Golden Garter and Lucille Murphy used to go lame after hard work or racing. Before leaving Chicago for the Pacific coast Corriggan had him examined by a veterinary, who pronounced the disease as what is termed "seedy hoof," which is caused by microbes that burrow into the shell of the hoof and can be distinctly seen under a microscope. The veterinary operated on the hoof, and had to saw away the entire front part of it until the hair was reached before he found the shell sound. In consequence Golden Rule has had an enforced holiday to allow the hoof to grow out.

Ed Corriggan has sent Riley back to the ranch to freshen him up for his season in the stud.
"I was satisfied he wouldn't train," said Mr.
Corriggan. "His legs began to trouble him when I let him down, and rather than lame the old fellow I decided to ship him back. I intend to breed him to over twenty mares, and he needs some rest before his season opens. What work I gave Riley did not hurt him. In fact, I believe it did him good, for he picked up 150 pounds at least while he was in training."

That the American Grand National Steeplechase, inaugurated only last year through the generosity of a number of gentlemen interested in cross country sport, has been a great success may be judged from the comparative table published below, which shows that though only in the second year, the number of its entries is greater than those for the English Grand National at any time during the past seven years. This is a wonderful showing, and conclusively proves the popularity of cross country
sport in this country:
